A workshop for town staff and volunteers on forest laws that's inside and in-the-field. Come prepared to spend the afternoon outside. Rain or shine.

Who should attend?

Selectmen, town clerks, tax collectors, assessors, code enforcement officers, conservation commissioners, road agents, forestry committee members, police officers, and other town employees and volunteers can play a vital role in the enforcement of forest laws. This is a valuable workshop for new town officials and employees, as well as a refresher course for those that have been around for awhile.

Foresters attending will receive CFE's for licensing.

Meeting times:

These workshops run from 8 am to 3:00 pm with a break from 12:30-1:00 for lunch. (Bring your own). You may attend for just the morning or for all day. Please arrive promptly so we can start on time.

8-8:15 check in

8:15-12:30 pm

- Who is responsible for what
