

Proclamation Honoring Jessie W. Levine

Whereas, Jessie W. Levine, served as the Town Administrator for the Town of New London from 2000 to 2011 and accomplished a number of tasks during her tenure; and

Whereas, Jessie W. Levine was involved in the Newport Road Sidewalk and Streetscape Project, which won the 2003 Plan NH Merit Award for Excellence in Design; and

Whereas, Jessie W. Levine was instrumental in establishing New Hampshire's first Tri-Town Assessing Program in 2005, which received the International City Management Association's Community Partnership Award in 2007; and

Whereas, Jessie W. Levine was involved in transitioning New London's Highway Department into a Public Works Department in 2007; and

Whereas, Jessie W. Levine spearheaded the Elkins Revitalization Project in 2008; and

Whereas, Jessie W. Levine was awarded the Union Leader Business and Industry Association's 40 under Forty award in 2010; and

Whereas, Jessie W. Levine is a past-president of the New London Rotary Club; and

Whereas, Jessie W. Levine served on the New Hampshire Municipal Association from 2005 to 2012; and

Whereas, Jessie W. Levine with her great sense of humor and dedication to a cause, agreed to sit in the New London Recreation dunk tank during the Hospital Days Celebration; and

Whereas, Jessie W. Levine served the Town of New London with pride, professionalism, and leadership; is well respected by the community and her former co-workers, and whose dedication was recognized by her staff who provided her with a framed sketch of the Newport Road Roundabout, which was a project that she was instrumental in completing;

Now, therefore; be it resolved the New London Board of Selectmen wish to express their deep appreciation to Jessie W. Levine for her commitment to, and the many years of service upon, the Town of New London, do hereby proclaim that the New London Roundabout be known as the Jessie W. Levine Roundabout from this day forward.

Adopted by the Town of New London Board of Selectmen this eleventh day of May, in the year of our Lord, two thousand fifteen in New London, NH.

Janet R. Kidder, Chairman

R. Peter Bianchi, Selectman

Nancy L. Rollins, Selectman

