

Town of New London, New Hampshire

A Proclamation

JULY 31, 2012 IS NEW LONDON BARN PLAYHOUSE DAY

WHEREAS, the New London Barn Playhouse is the oldest, continuously operating summer theatre in the State of New Hampshire, and

WHEREAS it produces plays and musicals of the highest quality in a converted Circa 1820 Yankee Barn on Main Street, and

WHEREAS, it has been recognized as a cultural treasure by its inclusion in the State Register of Historic Places, and

WHEREAS, each summer the Barn Playhouse, through its acclaimed Intern Program, trains a score of talented young people in the theatrical arts, and

WHEREAS, many such "Barnies" have gone on to great acclaim in the entertainment business, receiving national recognition as multiple winners of Academy Awards, Tony Awards, Emmys and the like, and

WHEREAS, the Barn Playhouse has been the recipient of an unprecedented number of New Hampshire Theatre Awards, including Best Musical Awards in each of the past two seasons, and

WHEREAS, the Barn Playhouse is celebrating its 80th Season.

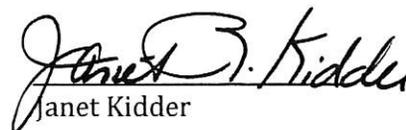

NOW, THEREFORE, WE THE NEW LONDON BOARD OF SELECTMEN,

R. Peter Bianchi

Christina M. Helm

Janet Kidder

DO HEREBY PROCLAIM THE 31st DAY OF JULY AS:

NEW LONDON BARN PLAYHOUSE DAY

Dated at New London Town Hall this 29th day of May, 2012

