CITATION

Be it hereby known that I, Christopher T. Sununu,
Governor of the State of New Hampshire, join with my fellow citizens in extending my personal best wishes and sincerest congratulations to

in recognition of the years of public service he has dedicated to New London, New Hampshire. Richard Lee started his career as Laborer in New London in 1973, and was appointed as Road Agent in 1991, a position which he held for many years. He then became New London's Director of Public Works when the position was established, and has served in this role ever since.

Richard Lee is an excellent example of the kind of public servant that makes New Hampshire towns thrive, and his community is thankful for his work. I commend him for his years of service, and congratulate him on a well-deserved retirement.
