1. Lake Protective Associations

The Lake Protective Associations attended to discuss their thoughts on the future of New London. The associations agreed that continued protection of the lakes and the ecosystems that feed the lakes is paramount. The lakes serve as a huge attraction for the community and need to be protected. The associations all supported regulations that help to protect the lake, like limiting development within the waterfront buffers, and encouraging native species. Water quality continues to be a primary concern and runoff from new development needs to be carefully watched.

1. Next meeting, September 5th, at 8:30 AM
2. Mr. Bonin adjourned the meeting at 10:05 AM.
